

“EACH OF THESE
DESIGN PROJECTS
IS INNOVATIVE,
IMAGINATIVE AND
IMPRESSIVE IN ITS
OWN WAY. THE USE
OF MATERIALS AND FINISHES IS KEY”

SARAH SPITERI, Editorial Director

BEST RESIDENTIAL PROJECT

WINNER: STRATFORD STUDIOS, TURNER POCOCK

'This was the most soulful entry, the most sophisticated,' judge Beata Heuman believed. 'Everything here goes together so well – it's so coherent,' added Lina Kanafani. 'I like where they've put the fireplace,' Kit Kemp said. 'There's not much space, but they've made something very special from it.'

BEST GARDEN

WINNER: OLD RECTORY, ANOUSHKA FEILER AT BESTIQUE

'It's such a wow design,' said Siobahn Farley. 'It has a really good story about dividing outdoor space,' said Barbara Chandler. 'This approach could work in town or country,' added Kit Kemp.

HIGHLY COMMENDED: Garden at Field Farm, Kim and Rob Hurst

'There's something poetic about the use of flowers,' said Sebastian Cox.

BEST KITCHEN

WINNER: K&H DESIGN

'It's so beautiful and it feels so different,' said judge Kit Kemp. 'The use of materials is very original.'

HIGHLY COMMENDED: The Haberdasher's Kitchen, deVOL

'This is the sort of kitchen everyone dreams of owning,' said executive editor Kate French.

BEST BATHROOM

WINNER: DRUMMONDS WITH STEVEN GAMBREL

'What I love about this design is the simplicity of its materials,' said interiors editor Emma Thomas. 'It will last forever,' Kit Kemp said.

BEST COMMERCIAL PROJECT

WINNER: LIME WOOD HOTEL
PAVILION SUITE, SUSIE ATKINSON

'This feels so relaxing,' said judge Siobahn Farley. 'It's lovely and homely,' agreed Lina Kanafani.

HIGHLY COMMENDED: Harrods
Dining Hall, David Collins Studio

'It's such a fun space to be in,' said judge Barbara Chandler. →
